Week 7 Term 3 – Thursday 3rd September 2020

Spring has sprung! The flowers are blooming, the bees are buzzing and the days are getting longer and finally a bit warmer. Once daylight saving is here it's the BEST time of the year. A little pep begins to return to everyone's step, something we are all craving this year.

Stephanie Hopkins: Principal

Superhero Day

Tomorrow is superhero day. A day to dress as our favourite hero and raise money for an incredible charity, Bear Cottage. I can't wait to don my cape tomorrow for our virtual parade in assembly.

School Photos

Tuesday was our annual school photo day. This year I had hoped to have the photos in Term 1 so that we have photos earlier in the year but COVID put a stop to that. Next year we will try again. I need to congratulate everyone for their amazing Arranounbai Attitude. Everyone waited patiently and listened carefully to all instructions. Every single person tried their absolute best, which was brilliant to see. There will be some great photos coming your way. Big thanks to all the staff for being so flexible and using your incredible skills to have everyone looking at the camera and smiling. Thanks Mrs Scholz for overseeing the morning and keeping us all on cue.

Vaccinations

The team of nurses, Louise and Julie, came yesterday to vaccinate some of our students. They are lightning fast; the children don't even know it has happened. Your children are in great hands with these two. We look forward to having them back on the 22nd of September for another round of vaccinations. Riley doesn't really look like he has just had an injection, I wish every nurse managed this.

Winner

Congratulations Mrs Pickford on winning a fabulous art trolley in a MTA (Modern Teaching Aids) competition. It looks spectacular. I think the kids are going to love it and I know Mrs Barrett will. Thank you.

Morning tea with Ms Hopkins

Today was the very first time students came to have morning tea with me. In assembly on Friday names were drawn out of the new Arranounbai Attitude boxes to win the chance to have morning tea with the principal. Samson, Jerina and Ava were the recipients this week. On Friday the senior classes will have their chance when their names are drawn out to join me.

Father's Day

Wishing all the Arranounbai father's a fabulous weekend, especially your Sunday. Perhaps you will recognise the 'artworks' created especially for each individual Dad!
Happy Father's Day!

Father's Day Cards

Father's Day this weekend. Don't forget the card! We have some available for you to purchase, only $1. Please write your order in the communication book, add the money and we will pop the card in.

Please sign ILPs and return via email

The majority of ILPs have now been completed across the school. These will be emailed to you as PDFs. Please electronically sign and return to class teachers. If you have any difficulties do not hesitate to let us know

Class of the Week

Each week during assembly a 'spy' will watch each class, looking for those doing their best to follow the Arranounbai Attitude. At the end the spy will announce the class that has shone that week.

Week 6: Spy – Mrs Neate

Class: 4M

Mrs Kennedy

This Week: 4K

4K have been busy on Fridays this term learning about our wonderful solar system. We have also been creating "Chat Books" with photos of our families, along with people, places and things that interest us.
